CHRIST, MY CHOICE

It is crystal clear that everyone in the world has his own belief and philosophy about God, Christ, and the certainty of the Bible. Some do not believe in God, and so they worship idols or themselves (but very deep within every man (atheist or not) is the consciousness of the existence of a "god"). All these thoughts come to their mind because either they or those who founded those gods (idols) cannot comprehend the mystery around God. The truth is that no one can comprehend God. He is the Mystery. Even Moses could not fully understand the mystery of God, though he searched deeply through meditations. Moses concluded that we exploit God's wisdom and allow what is not given to us when he said, "What is not given to us is not for us…" (Deuteronomy 29:29, NIV). Moses started his first book with, "In the beginning God…" (Genesis 1:1, NIV), meaning beyond this period, no one can explain what existed, for man cannot understand the things before God created time. Many have taken it upon themselves to think about the things that are beyond human understanding, that is, the things before time began and have gone astray. You who want to know more about God start by learning all the wisdom about man; God is God, and truly speaking, no knowledge can trace this, but everywhere around us is the proof or the wisdom that He is God, and so we believe. When a man cannot understand something, he frames an understanding to satisfy his mind.

We have pondered these mysteries and concluded that no one can trace the true origin. Moses said, "God is the beginning of all things…" (Genesis 1:1, NIV). If God is the origin (beginning), then what is the origin of this origin? And so, we tried reasoning that when men die, their spirits form an amalgam (kingdom) of spirits that, in turn, rule the physical world. Being dead, they have attained perfection and are at the origin of all other beings.

That is the theory of those who believe in “ancestors” as gods. But if they became perfect after death, who created them even before they died? This also remained a mystery.

Since our first reasoning was flawed, we joined those who say the dead are reincarnated. This means nothing new is created (no God exists), but creation revolves. But if this were true, the world’s population would be stable. Even if it was true, another question remains: Who created those who started this rotation?

We joined those who believe in trees and animals as idols. But trees and animals have no soul, only a form of spirit, for it is written, “The spirit of man that goes up, and the spirit of animals that goes down…” (Ecclesiastes 3:21, KJV). So, man and animals (or trees) have different spirits. Moreover, trees and animals have no soul and cannot exist in the spirit world. No one can exist without a soul in both the physical and spiritual worlds. Thus, man is the only one who exists after death. So we decided to think further.

Indeed, the world is a breathtaking masterpiece, a testament to the divine artistry. However, this beauty is marred by the presence of evil. God, in His wisdom, granted man dominion, yet the devil has twisted this gift to establish the reign of evil in this world. The horror of the world has a name: sin. And the problems in this world have a name: man. We see no other earthly being.

When we consider all living things, we see that man has dominated all living creatures and is trying to dominate other fellow men. The more he gains dominion, the more evil dominates. The devil reigns through man: Man is full of schemes, selfishness, pride, greed, and wickedness. He loves power, dominion, and money.

Yet, we must not lose sight of man’s potential for good. If man behaved uprightly and kindly, everyone would eat to their satisfaction and live in peace. However, man’s propensity for creating problems, even for nature with his foolish way of life, is evidence that the devil has found a home within him.

In these worlds, man is the equation to solve, and the one who knows precisely what is in man can solve it.

Everyone versed in military operations knows that the most essential thing in a battle or war is not weapons but “information”: Even with full armor and weapons, someone with the correct information can destroy you with stones (see what a young boy did to Goliath). Only someone who knows the exact hiding place of the devil in man can overcome him. But who can access such deeply hidden information without the ONE who sees everything?

When we embarked on our journey of understanding, we found a guiding light in a book. This book, revered by many, has been a source of profound wisdom and guidance. Some call it the "Word of God," a title that commands respect and reverence. Regardless of its name, we know that this book holds the answers to our deepest questions.

The wise and the foolish all die. Those who seek knowledge and those who seek wealth all die. The wise man says, "I want to make the world a better place…" The foolish man says, "We all came here on Earth to die one day, so let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we may die." But the truth is that whether we die with an empty stomach or with a full stomach, it does not influence the decree against us; it is our sin that condemns us. The poor say, "Money makes the world go round," but when we get rich, we discover that money has limitations.

If there is only one God, then Life is sacred; therefore, every man is accountable to the "Accountant" of this Life. If it is true that there is a judgment after death, then we have to do something about it since everyone must die one day, and there is no age for death. Wisdom says that there is a judgment for all that we do (good or evil) in this Life: We have seen it in this Life, and we consequently believe that if judgment started in this world, it will continue against us wherever we go after death. Therefore, we need someone to help us make up for Life after death since it has become so clear that we shall be judged for all our sins. So, we observed the philosophies of the men of this world to try to seek a solution to our fear of condemnation.

We observed that there are many religions and many saviors. We said, "Religion is good, but a true savior is better." We do not care about the religion or about whom they say is the true savior. Nor about what his Name is. For who has returned from the dead with a message about who truly is the Messiah? All that we seek is to make a conscious and responsible choice so that we can bear its implications in the world beyond without any regret. Yes, what if we choose a wrong messiah and give him all our Life to only discover in the world beyond that another is the true Messiah?

By observing the wisdom in this world, we conclude with evidence that there is a judgment after death, which even starts here on Earth, but there is no evidence of who truly is the savior. Death is a one-way ticket; no one has returned from the world after death with proof of who the Messiah is. If we do not want to spend all our energy in this world in vain, trusting in a deceiver, we should consider carefully our choice.

Therefore, we decided to consider all the wisdom needed to make the right choice. By wisdom, no one can save others from sin unless he is free from sin, and by personal observation, no man does not sin, not even during days of old (Ecclesiastes 7:20, KJV). Therefore, the Messiah cannot be a man. The Bible correctly says, "God became man in Jesus…" We believe these words because he who judges man after death cannot be a sinner, and so, he cannot be a man. All men are sinners, not because they do not want to be holy but because they cannot be; therefore, it seems that sin's power (spirit) is in man. But if God judges man, He did not make man with sin (Ecclesiastes 7:29, KJV) but in His image and likeness—to be holy and function like Him. If man was created "holy," he can be made "holy" again.

Wisdom says that as there is no effect without a cause, there is no effect without a remedy. If God permitted man to sin, He had also created a way out. If the Messiah must be holy, God Himself should be the Messiah. By wisdom, God is not a sinner; if He were one, He would not judge man for sinning.

Moreover, if the Messiah saves men from death (judgment), then he must first be able to save himself from death: He should not die, but if he does, he should be able to resurrect again. No one who cannot overcome death can save others from the power of death.

We saw Christ when we looked into all these criteria and many others. Yes, we have chosen Christ. If you have another choice that satisfies all these criteria, let us consider it in wisdom: If your messiah is a man, he is not fit because he should first save himself since all men, with no exception (including him), will be under judgment due to sin. Do not deceive yourself by saying that your messiah is not a man simply because many people say so, for who is a man? A man is anyone born of a man and a woman. Christ was not born of a woman and man relationship. If your messiah is a man, he cannot be holy, so he cannot save anyone, not even himself, for all sinners shall be judged.

Therefore, the wise seek Jesus Christ first and redeem the time (Ephesians 5:14–16, KJV) to invest their efforts in a lasting kingdom, for where a man's treasure is, there will his heart also be (Matthew 6:21, NIV).

I have learned from the living words of Christ that no one should deceive me that Christianity is anywhere in the world, for Christianity (the kingdom of heaven) is within the man that accepts Him, and I believe Him.

Because I believe in Him, I have also made Him my choice, Christ and God forever. Surprisingly, I have ceased sinning since then and do not regret my decision. If, like me, you wish to make a bold step into eternity, start by repeating this prayer sincerely, for with the mouth, confession is made unto salvation, but repentance is from the heart (Romans 10:9–10, NIV):

Lord Jesus, I am a sinner; I have sinned against you and man.
Today, I plead guilty to all my sins. Lord God, have mercy and forgive me because of Christ's Blood poured out on the Cross of Calvary for me.
Wash me in the Blood of Jesus, and I shall be regenerated.
Resurrect me through the Holy Spirit, and I shall receive the power to become a son of God. Write my Name in your book of Life, and I shall live. Thank You, Lord.
In the Name of Jesus, the living Christ, Amen.

If you have sincerely done this prayer, you are born again, and Christ, the Son of the Living God, lives in you. You have made the most important decision a man can make in this Life (Luke 10:41–42, NIV).

Now that you are a living being, you need to find a living church and continue worshiping with other Christians. Do not stop worshiping with other Christians (Acts 2:42, NIV), for as iron sharpens iron, so one Christian sharpens another (Proverb 27:17, NIV; Hebrews 10:25, NIV).

Moreover, as a new creature, the things on this website and in my upcoming books concern you, so pay attention (Proverbs 4:20, NIV). And work out your salvation with fear and trembling (Philippians 2:12–13, NIV) because small is the gate and narrow is the road that leads to divine Life (Matthew 7:14, NIV).

Psalm: Christ, the Messiah

No one was found worthy to save humankind; no one was found worthy to take the seven Seals and the seven Spirits of God. God became man in Jesus—the Stone the builders rejected became the chief Cornerstone. The gospel the tenants of the Glory rejected has become the Cornerstone.

Christ is the lion of the tribe of Judah (Genesis 49:8–9, NIV). Unto Judah, Jacob said," The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs and obedience of the nations is his." (Genesis 49:10, NIV) Christ is he to whom it belongs, and obedience of the nations is his.

Christ died for humanity. A world of visions fell, and the Earth's trees were deprived of an excellent mind. But he was raised from the dead by the Holy Spirit. God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself.

The keys of hell belong to sin, but Christ has broken the power of sin such that Life and hell are in His hands. God is named in Christ; no other name is given to man through whom he can be saved.

Christ is the end of the Aaronic priesthood, for it was just a shadow (that is, just temporal) of the truth (Hebrews 7:11, NIV). He is the end of the concept of the law in the form known to the natural man (Hebrews 7:12, NIV).

They rejected Him because they were just tenants in the Glory, but we are sons of the Glory. Upon one Stone (the Cornerstone of Life) shall be seven eyes: In one Name shall be the fullness of God (the Seven Spirits of God). Christ is the Cornerstone of the universe, for without Him, nothing was created. And now, He has also become the Cornerstone of Life, for the Father has granted the Son Life Himself.

Christ has Life in Himself, for He is the living Groom. Oh yes! Rivers of living water flow from his belly to resurrect the good daughter spirit in men. We bless you, Lord Jesus, for You alone reigns.

All the Glory is to God the Father, Christ the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

I BELIEVE IN REVIVAL

You have heard so many sermons that left you with a smile, but although you don't want to admit it, you know deep within you that they were empty words.

If they were not, why do you still struggle to be holy? Why do you still struggle with demonic oppressions, sicknesses, and curses?

Even though you convince yourself that "it was true knowledge," your problems with the evil world remain. This makes you feel that something is wrong somewhere.

No one has to tell you something is wrong somewhere—you know it because you live with it.

Either something is wrong with you, or something is wrong with the gospel you have been absorbing for years.

When you think further, you acknowledge that the fault cannot be from you because you came as a sinner—just as the Bible asked you to.

But if you came as the Bible stipulates (as a humble sinner), why have you not received the power of the resurrection (John1:12, KJV) that makes someone cross from darkness to light completely (John12:46, NIV), leaving no trace of darkness (Luke 11:36, NKJV; 1 John1:5–6, NIV).

There must be something in that Bible that has not been preached to you. You can't tell what it is (1 Timothy 4:1, NIV).

This website will help you! The Living gospel will help you:

- You will overcome sin without any struggle.
- When you are sick, you will pray for yourself.
- Demonic oppressions will give way to sweet dreams—instantly.
- You will start receiving instructions from God directly as a son should and walk in His mind.
- Those who attack people in dreams will be scared of you. Whenever they come, they will see your amazing Glory; you will overcome them without even noticing that they came.
- The Holy Spirit will become your Counselor and Shepherd. You will discern false prophets and teachers. No longer will you yield to false teachings.
- You will read your Bible instead of listening to liars, dreamers, and sorcerers. Men who are experts in quoting Bible verses out of context will not deceive you.
- Leaders will read their Bible before preaching to you. Those who spend all their time on the internet copying instead of reading their Bible will be ashamed before you.

THE LIVING GOSPEL

The Lord Jesus said in Luke 4:18–19 (NIV), "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor… to proclaim freedom to the prisoners…" Whoever has the spirit of Revival will say, "The glory of revival is upon me because the Lord has anointed me with the spirit of meditation to unfold the hidden mysteries."

Blessed are all those who can understand these mysteries. Although the Lord Jesus was full of great revelations, he said in Matthew 7:6 (NIV), "… do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may trample them under their feet and turn again to tear you to pieces." We all await a revival, but before true Revival comes, there must first be a rebirth of learning.

We all await the flame of Revival, but Revival is for those who accept it like babies. The Lord Jesus came so the blind may see, but many who claim wisdom (as the Pharisees said) say, "Have we now become blind? "We will answer them with Christ's own words, "If you were blind you would have seen, but now you say, 'Are we now blind?', therefore your blindness stays." (John 9:41, NIV) That is, "If you were not blind, there would not have been the need for a flame of revival."

The Lord Jesus came in the Glory of the Spirit, bringing a spiritual revolution, but he was rejected by those who claimed that his gospel made no sense (had no beauty), as written in Isaiah 53:1–3 (NIV). The Arm of the Lord was revealed to him, but who believed him? They said his gospel had no beauty because they thought it broke the Law of Moses; although his ways did not break the law, they fulfilled it. (Matthew 5:17–18, NIV).

They rejected the revealed truth about God's image, but all who accepted Him as babies (as blind) received the power to become sons of God (John 1:10–13, NIV).

Christianity is not a religion but the Life of God in man. If it is God's Life, then true Christianity cannot be understood by man except through the Spirit of God, as it is written, "For, who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the man's spirit within him? In the same way no one knows the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God." (1 Corinthians 2:11, NIV). In Galatians 2:11–16 (NIV), we observe that in the beginning, even the apostles did not understand this form of Christianity. Apostle Paul was one of the first to understand the true freedom that is in Christ (Galatians 1:11–12, NIV), then Barnabas also (that is why their [Barnabas and Apollos] book [the book of Hebrews] is very similar to Paul's writings); that is why they were given the Right Hand of fellowship for the gentiles (Galatians 2:9, NIV). That is also why the Spirit said, "Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them… (Acts 13:2–3, NIV)". Paul, talking about the grace on him, said to the Galatians, "I want you to know that the gospel I preached is not something that man made up. I did not receive it from any man, nor was I taught it; rather, I received it by revelation from Jesus Christ." (Galatians 1:11–12, NIV) "As for those who seemed to be important, whatever they were, makes no difference to me; God does not judge by external appearance, those men added nothing to my gospel…" (Galatians 2:6–7, NIV) He also said (in Galatians 1:15–16, NIV)," I was called apart from birth…" Even though the apostles were Christ's disciples, the grace was given to Paul, which is why he said, "Whatever they were, it makes no difference to me." He said, "…It is not something that man made up," because of the opposition; for his gospel was strange but true (Galatians 1:11, NIV).

Because he understood true Liberty, which is the actual image of Christianity, he could boldly rebuke Apostle Peter (in Galatians 2:11, NIV).

Since the other apostles did not understand true Liberty, why did the Spirit bless their ministry? The anointing of the Holy Spirit on them even brought divisions among the sheep of Paul concerning Paul's true apostleship (his form of gospel), 1 Corinthians 9:1-2, 6 (NIV). For this reason, in most of his letters, he often said, "Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ…not by man but by the will of God." (Galatians 1:1, NIV). He said, "…not by man…" because of the opposition to his gospel.

The other apostles also succeeded in their ministry even though it was not the actual image of Christianity because these two gospels were in God's plans from the beginning. Remember how Christ was resisted by the "Jewish" vision of God's grace: They could not accept the Liberty he brought because of Moses. Not knowing that Christ's Liberty explains Moses' law (for it is written, "Do not think that I came to abolish the law or the prophets, I have come …to fulfill them." (Matthew 5:17, NIV). They thought He broke their law, so they could not accept Him. Their resistance was so great that He said, "…however, when the Son of man comes, will he find faith on earth?" (Luke 18:8, NIV) Shall he find true Liberty? Shall he find people who understand God's vision of holiness? Shall he find people who understand the concept of sin of the New Covenant?" To solve this problem, God gave them a Christianity mixed with laws, and He gave them twelve apostles, as it is written, "…at the renewal of all things (when Christianity comes)… you who have followed me will sit on twelve thrones, judging [(preaching to), (Judges 2:16, NIV; Judges 3:10, NIV)] the twelve tribes of Israel…" (Matthew 19:28, NIV). Another apostle was sent to the gentiles (Paul) who knew not Moses, as it is written in Acts 9:15 (NIV), just as He gave divorce in the Law of Moses because they could not bear the true meaning of marriage (Mark 10:4–5, NIV). Peter was the leading apostle for the mixed gospel (what is preached today) sent to the twelve tribes of Israel, for they could not bear the actual image of Christianity because of the Law of Moses. But Paul was sent to those who did not know Moses' law (gentiles) and could accept the actual image of Liberty (Galatians 2:8, NIV, Romans 15:15–16, NIV). Also, think through the words of James, the apostle who became the church leader at Jerusalem in James 1:1(NIV).

Concerning Christianity, the Bible leaves us with a legacy of two gospels: The Image of Christianity and The Shadow of Christianity (a mixed gospel). The image of Christianity is difficult to understand but is in the Bible. Even Apostle Peter understood it only later and wrote in 2 Peter 3:15–16(NIV), saying, "…His letters contain some things that are difficult to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort…" He later understood Paul's wisdom and commended him, though he said, "…it is difficult to understand."

Consider how the apostles managed their differences; they all understood that there are two gospels, but no one criticized the other(s): Peter did not criticize Paul, nor did Paul criticize the twelve apostles in Jerusalem. But why were they so wise? It was because they understood that these two gospels were in God's purpose to convince as many as were predestined, for all Israel in spirit (all the Elects: gentiles and Jews) must be saved (even those who cannot accept true Liberty), for it is written, "And so all Israel will be saved." (Romans 11:26, NIV)

The Lord Jesus, also speaking about God's purpose, predicted these gospels when he said, "…therefore every scribe (Jew) instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is a householder, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old." (Matthew 13:52, KJV). What are the old things? And what are the new stuff? The old things are mixed with the new ones, just as they are today (Christianity is combined with the Old Testament's conception of holiness). Even though the Christians of today have abandoned the ceremonial Israelite laws, they still live with the perception that God judges them through the other laws. This form of Christianity has even improved because, during the apostle's days, Christians had difficulties freeing themselves from ceremonial laws (circumcision of the flesh, eating animals with the blood, etc.).

A form of Christianity (the Image of Christianity) needs to be explained. Still, it carries all the Glory that the resurrection of Christ brought because it is the image (not the shadow) of Christianity (God's Life). It is understood by revelation, for how can you know that there is no law and that you cannot sin if God has not revealed the concept of sin to you? If you don't understand the concept of sin, you will continue claiming that you cannot sin but go on sinning, for it is not by mouth or effort (as written in Romans 9:16, NIV) but by understanding the truth. Grace is not the Liberty to sin but the power over sin. This was the main problem that the gospel of Liberty faced in Paul's time, so he always had to remind his sheep in his letters that all sinners would perish (Romans 13:13, NIV; 1 Corinthians 6:9–10, NIV; etc.). Many Bible scholars could not even understand this concept of faith, so they distorted some Bible verses' meaning. For example, when 1 John 3:9 (KJV) says, "…a Christian cannot sin…" they say, "…a Christian does not make a practice of sin." These are two entirely different things. The second best explains the Christian concept of faith today (that is why it was quickly chosen by those who translate after the hearing). In this concept of faith, a Christian believes that, at times, it is normal for him to sin since, when he sins, he will also repent. He believes that one can't overcome sin. This is not the spirit of the Bible, for if it was, the Bible contradicts itself when it says, "We have overcome the world (the master of the world is sin, so he who overcomes sin overcomes the world)," or when it says, "Who can condemn us, it is God that justifies…" or when it says, "There is, therefore, no condemnation (sin) for those who are in Christ …" (It is sin that separates us from God, nothing else. If there is no sin, there are no accusations from demons, and so, there is no condemnation). The other interpretation means that the sacrifice of Christ has done more than forgive sins; it has also justified us. If justified, we were made guiltless (innocent) of the former sins (since there is a change of person) and sin-free. If we were made sin–free, then we cannot sin, for sin is not in the law (contrary to what many believe); that is why it is written that the law is good (Romans 7:16, NIV). Then, sin is a spirit (in Romans 8:2, NIV). Paul calls it the law of sin that dwells in the natural man (Romans 7:17, NIV). That is why it is written in Isaiah 64:6 (NIV) that "…all our righteousness are like filthy rags before God…" It is also said in Romans 3:20 (NIV) that through our efforts, we cannot be accepted by God. Our good deeds are defiled by the spirit of sin, which lives in us from birth (Adam's sin), as it is also written, "All have sinned and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23, NIV) But when we come to Christ, He separates us from this spirit and gives us the power to live a holy life (Romans 8:3–4, NIV). Since the spirit of sin is no more in us, no part of us is darkness (1 John 1:5, KJV); that is also what Christ meant when He said, "…see to it therefore that the light (groom spirit) within you is not darkness. Therefore, if your whole body is full of light, and no part of it is dark, it will completely be lighted as when the light of a lamp shines on it." (Luke 11:34–36, NIV), or when he said, "A good tree cannot bear bad fruits…" Matthew 7:18 (NIV)

However, even in the days of Apostle Paul, many wandered away from this living gospel, thinking that by teaching the law–mixed gospel, they pleased God, just as seen in these last days (1 Timothy 1:5–7,9, NIV). The law is made for the unrighteous, not those under the living gospel, whose heart is pure and whose conscience is good; the righteous shall live by faith, not laws (Romans 1:17, NIV). And he that walks by love has fulfilled all the law (Romans 13:10, NIV).

To understand the image of Christianity and be transformed by it instantly, we need to understand what happened in the Garden of Eden and the concept of sin in the New Testament.

Many revelations about the mysteries of Life occurred in the Garden of Eden. We can only live in the full power of the resurrection if we truly understand the meaning of the fruit of good and evil. The Garden of Eden summarizes the whole of Scripture. The law and Christ were also predicted there.

From these revelations, we will understand the true meaning of the Sabbath. We will understand why the Jews thought that Christ broke the Sabbath; meanwhile, he broke no Sabbath. We will understand why no one attains everlasting Life except through the Word and the Spirit. We will understand that the seventh day of creation refers to the thousand years of Christ's reign, written in Revelation, which is Christianity. We will realize that Christ is the Lord of Christianity; that is why he said that the Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath. We will understand many other concepts that will change us forever.

Now we know that a form of Christianity was practiced long ago, through which men were changed instantly as they understood the concept of the truth (the gospel), as observed in John 1:12 (NIV) or Acts 2 (NIV). They were changed as soon as they listened to it and received a quick understanding of God's wisdom to receive revelations from God regularly, grow in Him, and live a holy and righteous life (Jeremiah 31:33–34, NIV; Romans 15:14–15 NIV). And they found favor before God and man, as said about Christ in Luke 2:52 (NIV).

They attained a quick understanding of the Christian faith so that they could wait on God, walk with Him, hear from Him always, and achieve full fellowship in prayer sessions during fellowship sessions. When we attain such a level of communion with God as we fellowship (pray, praise, etc.), we feel the Power of God's Fire flowing through us. As we minister to others, we feel the power leaving us as Christ felt when the woman with the issue of blood touched him in faith (Luke 8:46, NIV). This is a genuine Father-Son relationship: when we start living truly the Life and Power of God that we read about in the Bible, not just in words but in reality, because we have learned how to love and trust God properly.

Now is the time when the true worshipers will worship God in spirit (good nature in man), for God is Spirit. So we worship God from the good nature (spirit) to be accepted. If we worship God through the evil nature (also called the flesh), we waste our time because we cannot please God through that nature, even if we are doing good (Romans 8:8, NIV; Isaiah 64:6, NIV). Since Christ is the only one who can give Life to our spiritual being (good nature), we need to be born into that nature and be born anew to please God (John 3:3, NIV).

We do not come to God simply because we want Him to help us (deliver us, bless us) but also because we want to love Him. However, no one can love Him except those who know Him. No one can know Him except He is revealed by His Spirit (1 Corinthians 2:11, NIV). When the knowledge about Him is fully revealed to us, we wait on Him and walk with Him because the revealed knowledge makes our love for Him invincible (perfect).

Christianity is in man's spirit and not in a church building, nor a church name, nor images, nor in food, nor on mountains, nor in a prophet, nor a particular science, nor heaven, nor on Earth, nor under the waters, nor in the other worlds, nor our parents, nor the church congregation, nor a tree, nor a temple, nor a shrine, nor the sun, nor the seasons, nor days, nor with an angel, nor with a demon, nor in sacred oil, nor a holy handkerchief, nor a sacred school, nor in education, nor a book, nor holy books, nor dresses, nor in a village, nor a city, nor in a nation, nor an organization: God is neither worshiped in Mount Horeb (1 king 19:8, NIV) nor Jerusalem (Deuteronomy 12:1–14, 28, NIV) but in man (John 4:21–26, NIV).

REBUILD CHRISTIANITY

The Christian Revival starts with you, but if you deny the truth and go after heresies or pastors, do not think your pastor, cousin, or parent will stand for you. On that day, everyone will stand on his own. Accusing others will not work, for it did not work with Adam (Genesis 3:12, NIV) nor Eve (Genesis 3:13, NIV). You are responsible for what you believe in (1 John 4:1, NIV; Proverbs 16:2, NIV), so be wise.

Rebuild what the forefathers destroyed: Let judgment start in the house. When the Lord Jesus entered the temple in Jerusalem, He drove away the businessmen and said, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations, but you have made it a den of thieves." (Jeremiah 7:9–11, NIV; Matthew 21:13, KJV)

The Bible also says, "When the Lord shall rebuild Zion, He shall appear in His Glory." (Psalms 102:16, KJV) Let business people and thieves make way, for the Lord has something better than this Tower (system of laws).

Unknowingly, the fathers were deceived like Eve and created a system not referenced in the New Testament but in Judaism. The system of Judaism cannot yield fruits in Christianity because every Christian is a priest (Revelation 1:5, NIV). How will such a system work here where everyone is equal before God (Matthew 23:8–9, NIV)? Everyone in Christianity is a priest, unlike in the Old Covenant. The only system that works here is a "Body" (1 Corinthians 12:27, NIV).

In a Body, all members are equal, irrespective of their importance. The pain (or Glory) of one is the pain (or Glory) of all. There is no room for individualism. The blessing of one is the blessing of all (1 Corinthians 12:12–22, NIV).

The system the Lord gave (the Body) would have yielded more fruits and permanent results. What the fathers built cannot even kill a mouse or Leviathan. Leviathan (the ancient, crooked serpent) is seated amid this system and has eaten everything up. What is left is a skeleton.

Do men go to war without information on their enemy? Men of war know that the most important asset is not weapons but information. Without information, your weapons are useless. You no longer have weapons; you have squandered everything through evil deeds.

We have heard that the devil is crafty, but you still think he is stupid.

The devil you know is the one your system has revealed to you; the devil you have been fighting for years is only a tiny percentage of the Leviathan. Many of his works are invisible, even though they are in front of us. Some of us even boast of his deeds unknowingly. The whole world is under his rule (he is the monster of the sea [nations]). He is the prince of this world (John 14:30, NIV), and this Christian system has fallen into his palms.

Were you not told we are dealing with an ancient (wise) serpent? The serpent is crafty (Genesis 3:1, NIV; Matthew 10:16, KJV); he knows how to make his way in (Job 1:6, NIV). We are making the same mistake as Eve: God instructed Adam, and he told Eve (Genesis 2:17, NIV), but she added her own law to it (Genesis 3:3, NIV). When there is a law, the devil has something to fight. The truth is simple and powerful (Matthew 11:30, NIV), but we complicate things.

Holiness is like a myth to us. If someone tells us, “I have spent twenty-four years without ever sinning in actions, thoughts, or dreams,” our first reaction will be, “It is a lie,” or, “It is impossible.” It is clear that we do not live in the same Christianity.

If someone tells us, “God does not tolerate sin. Even those who sin in a dream will not be saved,” our first reaction will be, “Who then can be saved?”

The kingdom of God is like a banquet organized in a hall, and the dress code is a white suit. Will you dress in a white suit before gaining access into the hall, or will you come in colorful attire, gain access, and later change into the white suit when you are already in the hall? No, except you have the dress code; you cannot enter that hall. So, too, it is in Christianity: Holiness is the key to heaven. It is not in heaven that you will become holy.

The most important thing in Christianity is not miracles but holiness, for before Christ, there were miracles (Matthew 7:21–23, NIV). Moses, Elijah, and Elisha were great miracle-doers.

If your gospel can't create genuine holiness instantly, then recheck it.

Holiness does not consist of all the laws the system has created, some of which even nullify God's command (Mark 7:3, 5-–9, 13, NIV). Christianity is not Judaism. In Christianity, it is what comes out of the heart that defiles a man (Mark 7:18–23, NIV), for out of good things, the heart can conceive evil.

Nothing outside a person (food, jewelry, beauty products, headscarf, clothes, etc.) can defile a man or woman (Mark 7:15, NIV).

If you want, you can be like Peter. Was Apostle Peter not there when Christ said these things? But they still mixed things up until an angel appeared to him (Acts 10:13–15, NIV).

Christ did not come to abolish the law but to fulfill it (Matthew 5:17, KJV). The laws are now written in our hearts (Hebrews 10:16, KJV), So what we believe to be a sin is sin to us and vice versa. Our conscience accuses us at the same rate at which the lamp of God torches our evil—we can't escape (Romans 2:15, KJV; 1 John 3:20, KJV).

Some people think that God is a man who will ask questions about our sins and see what he can do about them. No, He knows our hearts and our secret sins (Proverbs 20:27, NIV).

Abraham knew Him as God Almighty, but He revealed Himself to Moses as the LORD. He is the Supreme Being (LORD) who rules everywhere, and the devil is the Accuser. There is only one source of Power (One God), but the devil gains power through these accusations (Just like the sun and the moon: The ordinary person thinks that they are two lights, but the learned person knows that it is only one Light. The moon only reflects the light from the sun, but according to its nature, it rules the darkness). How will the moon rule over you if you are of the day? It is the darkness in you that empowers devils. Christ boldly said, "… the prince of this world is coming. He has no hold over me…" (John 14:30-31, NIV)

Here is the mystery: Contrary to what we think, the laws create a battleground for us. Where there is no law, there is no anchor for sin; that is why Christ boldly said, " … on this rock (faith), I will build my Church, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew16: 18, NKJV)

If you are guilty in your conscience, the consequence is immediately released. It may take some time to manifest. You may run ahead of it, but it will overtake you or your descendants.

If you break the law, you automatically bear the consequences. But if you keep it, you live by it (Deuteronomy 30:19–20, NIV). So God did not give the Israelites mere words as laws but the principles by which this world stands.

These laws are the principles of Life (Proverbs 6:23, NIV; Proverbs 3:7–8, NIV); that is also why Christ said, "I have not come to abolish the law (the principles) but to fulfill it." (Matthew 5:17–18, KJV). There are ten commandments ("tithes" is not one of them); the rest are ceremonial rules, symbols fulfilled in the Christian Life.

One of these ten principles (Sabbath) is the rest in Christ (Hebrews 4:10, KJV).

Christ did not come to abolish the principles of Life (laws) but to fulfill the ceremonial laws. Christ summarized all these ten commands in one word—Love (Matthew 22:37–40, NIV; Galatians 5:14, NIV; Luke 6:32, NIV).

You are judged automatically if you fail to show pure love to all human beings. If you do not want anyone to do something to you, don't do it to them. Nothing out of a pure conscience is not love (1 Timothy 3:9, KJV). So, always put yourself in the place of others. God wants not only justice but also mercy and forgiveness.

If you don't even understand the importance of obtaining things through holiness but still think you can sin to gain favor and then repent later, your place is not here. God's people will never sin for worldly gain but will use wisdom and humility to prosper.

The fullness of God's blessings dwells in the spirit of the man who abides in Him.

Here is our theology's problem—we think the New Testament is plain and easier to understand than the Old Testament. The truth is that the Church grew and spread, but not without internal and external difficulties. The influence of the Jewish religion caused internal problems, and external challenges were caused by socio-political influence (these affected everything). That is why, even though the New Testament seems plain, it is challenging to understand. It is written in levels of truth and may appear as if a speaker contradicts himself at some points because they were still growing in knowledge. (Hence, the time, conflict, and context in which each word was written is essential). However, no correct interpretation of scripture contradicts the Bible as a whole.

Nevertheless, the one prophet amongst them was perfect.

Psalm: The Time of Revival

My God is awesome, so excellent in Beauty. His Glory reigns over the world.

That which came in the Name of the Lord is unstoppable! Visions were given to the sons of men as God, the Father, talked with the Son about the Glory to be revealed by the Spirit in these end times. Prophets predicted the Revival of the word; unto one of them, it was said," You (Christians) are not ready…" he wept bitterly.

Lord, if your Presence does not go with me, do not send me up from here (Exodus 33:15–16, NIV).

Now is the time of Revival; I saw the earth's surfaces bubbling as the Spirit of the Lord moved ahead to prepare the way.

I saw the saints of the Lord assembled in the Great Assembly; the Voice said, "Who will lead us…" They all cast the first and last inheritance on this gospel (nation), for Jericho shall be rebuilt at the expense of the first and last blessings (total Glory)

The decree has been issued, the Glory has begun, the line has been drawn, the battle is hot, the armies of heaven have gone ahead, and Revival has been launched from a distant land. The battle is the Lord's, and unto you, oh Son of God, is given Living words for a weapon, therefore be courageous (Jeremiah 1:8, KJV).

Listen, I am just a man telling you what has been decreed beyond the realms: The wind of change.

Be thou exalted, oh God above all the worlds, and let your dwelling place be in man (Immanuel).

Thank you, Precious Jesus, for your love and sacrifice.

Amen
